Beloved Seekers of the Law of One,

We send you blessings as the leaves fall and families look forward to the coming season of holidays and, for those of us in the northern hemisphere, cold days.

This is a time of sometimes massive inconveniences. And yet the vibrations have never beckoned us on with more beauty and love. As we see the winter solstice come and go, please be reassured that we truly are in fourth density insofar as we live by fourth-density values. As we say here in the south, it's a matter of our "loving on each other": of seeing unity when others see things falling apart; of holding to compassion when others fall into scorn and division; of seeing sacred things everywhere; of letting the Creator's light shine through us at a time when there is much fear. This is how we join the dawn of fourth density while living in the outer craziness of third density's end. This is how we lighten the consciousness of Planet Earth.

Although I am still engaged in learning to walk again, and waiting for nature to close a surgical wound that can't be closed any other way, both L/L and I have had a great year! We have a new book out, The Poetry of Carla Lisbeth Rueckert. I hope it may aid a few! I have been editing interviews, and the Homecoming speeches from 2011. When they go online you can see those in the "Carla's Niche" and "Homecomings and Gatherings" sections of our archive website, respectively. And Jim and I have done a bit of teaching at a private forum near Philadelphia, at The Fuge. Then there are my online classes at the International Metaphysical University. They are most blessed fun!

L/L's channeling is all up on the www.llresearch.org site for free, as are almost all of our books. My teaching tapes are transcribed for free as well. And the larger Law-of-One community buzzes along, bright and true, at www.bring4th.org. And there is so much else that has happened and is happening at L/L Research worthy of sharing with you! But it can't be crammed into this begging letter – you'll have to tune into our next issue of the Gatherings Newsletter for that. You can subscribe if interested at <http://www.bring4th.org/subscribe/>.

There is one more detail my heart is beaming to share with you. Thanks to the generosity of our friend, Larry, also the sponsor of the Fuge event mentioned above, my Mick (Jim McCarty) will be able to retire his one-man lawn-service outfit and ... wait for it... work full-time for L/L Research (!) – Jim's previous occupation and passion before times got tough around the turn of the century. On the backside of this document, you'll notice two pie charts detailing L/L's expenses and income for this calendar year. Our donations have ballooned to an unprecedented level this year, thanks to Larry contributing what will become Jim's regular salary as an L/L Research employee beginning in January, 2013. My spirit soars! It's been a long road of non-stop, outdoor work for Mick in all temperatures, ranging from blistering heat to freezing cold; work that, coupled with taking care of me in my currently very dependent state, wears on my 65-year old husband and research partner. We can't wait to have Jim here full-time!

All of us at the L/L home team – and the global network of volunteers who so generously give of themselves – have dedicated our lives to serving from our hearts, offering the best of ourselves and the information we collect for the interested seeker. As this manifests into the physical world, most of it costs money, and we have been able to do those things strictly because of your donations. And now it is time to ask you again for your help. Please keep us going! I humbly ask you to help us with a donation! Thank you so very much.

In Love/Light,

Carla Rueckert for L/L Research – Jim, Gary, Steve, Roman, and all both near and far who serve in love
